

Groups and Tribes that oppose the land exchange

There are over 500 tribes that have voiced opposition to this land swap, including:

1. National Congress of American Indians
2. Inter Tribal Council of Arizona, Inc.
3. San Carlos Apache Tribe
4. United Southern and Eastern Tribe, Inc.
5. Jicarilla Apache Nation
6. Pueblo of Tesuque
7. Pueblo of Zuni
8. White Mountain Apache Tribe
9. Pascua Yaqui Tribe
10. Yavapai-Apache Nation
11. Susanville Indian Rancheria
12. Ft. McDowell Yavapai Nation
13. Arizona Mining Coalition
14. Concerned Citizens and Retired Miner's Coalition
15. Religious and Human Rights Organizations
16. Concerned Climbers of Arizona
17. Mescalero Apache Nation
18. All Indian Pueblo Council
19. Eight Northern Indian Pueblos
20. Hopi Tribe
21. Save the Scenic Santa Ritas Association
22. Tohono O'odham Nation
23. Azee Bee Nahagha of Dine Nation
24. Karuk Tribe
25. Affiliated Tribes of the Northwest Indians
26. Navajo Nation
27. Inter-Tribal Council of Nevada, Inc.
28. Great Plains Tribal Chairman's Association
29. Picuris Pueblo
30. Ramona Band of Cahuilla

From earthworksaction.org: "Conservations organizations ranging from the Sierra Club to the Arizona Audubon Society have also expressed serious concerns. In addition, Concerned Citizens and Retired Miners Association has formed to oppose the land exchange, while climbing organizations The Access Fund and Concerned Climbers of Arizona are also engaged to stop this misguided proposal before it's too late."